

On self adjoint norm-attainable operators

Benard Okelo

Abstract

In this paper we present the theory of norm-attainability for Hilbert space operators. In particular, we characterize self-adjointness of the norm-attainable operators. We also outline the relationship between norm-attainability and normality when the norm-attainable operators are self-adjoint.