

On the negative eigenvalues of two-dimensional Schroedinger operators with singular potentials

Martin Karuhanga

Abstract

In this paper quantitative upper estimates for the number of negative eigenvalues of a two dimensional Schroedinger operator with potential supported by an unbounded Lipschitz curve are presented. The estimates are given in terms of the weighted L^1 and $L \log L$ type Orlicz norms of the potential.