

Graduation 2013

Strathmore
UNIVERSITY

Chairperson's Message

I wish to congratulate all the students who are graduating today. I wish also to acknowledge your hard work and the support of your parents, lecturers and mentors, which have enabled you to attain this tremendous achievement.

This year's graduation is taking place at a time when the entire world is undergoing a financial crisis, which is expected to affect the uptake of graduates into employment positions. Do not be afraid. The University has equipped you with entrepreneurial skills that will ensure that you become a creator of jobs not a seeker of jobs. Your entrepreneurial ventures will ensure that you survive the prevailing circumstances and contribute to Kenya's recovery from this crisis.

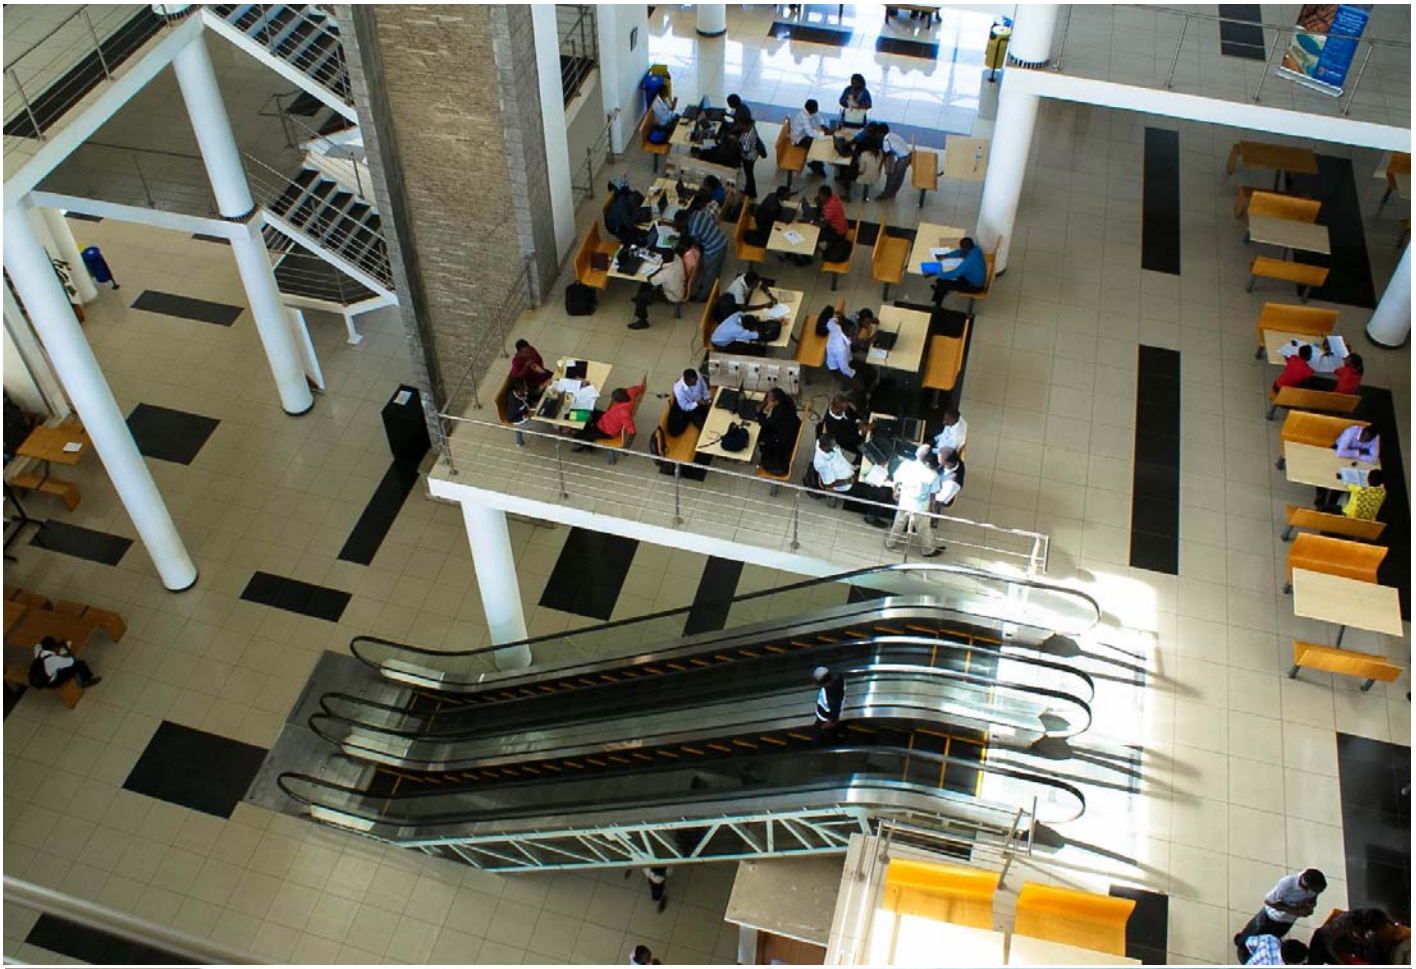

As alumni of Strathmore University, take advantage of the Strathmore Enterprise Development Centre which exists to give you all the logistical support that you need to succeed.

As you go out into the world of work, up hold the human qualities you have learnt to live while here at Strathmore. We expect you to demonstrate in the environment in which you will live and work, the spirit of service, and the high moral standards that have been passed to you.

I thank all our collaborators and benefactors, parents and sponsors. I express our special gratitude to East African Breweries, Fomento Fundaciones, the University of Navarre, Co-op Bank, Commercial Bank of Africa and the International Financial Corporation with whom we are working closely to achieve the growth and progress that we continue to experience in the University.

I wish you all a bright future marked with a culture of lifelong learning and continuous self improvement.
