Strathmore
UNIVERSITY

Coat of Arms

The Lion is the symbol of strength and courage, and of the determined fight for excellence and justice. It also represents Kenya, our country, which strives to attain all the qualities mentioned above.

The Rose in full bloom represents love, the source of all good desires and actions, even if at times this means loving sacrifice, as represented by the thorns. The rose has a supernatural meaning too. Love, with capital letters, is love of God. The rose also has a historical meaning associated with the life of Saint Josemaría Escrivá, founder of Opus Dei, who inspired and encouraged the people who started Strathmore: he once received a divine sign in the form of a carved gilded rose in a very trying moment of his life.

The Three Hearts represent the three races which, in 1961 when the University started, were segregated in the colonial system of education. The heart represents the person, since it is taken as the source of all our actions, and the source of love. The fact that the three hearts all have the same colour shows the equality of all people and their aim to love and understand each other. At the beginning it clearly pointed at the target of racial unity. Today it symbolises the common aim of parents, teachers and students in the educational process of Strathmore.

The Motto "Ut omnes unum sint" is Latin. It is a quotation from a passage of the Gospel, and means "That all may be one". It expresses our desire to work together towards the same aim, in spite of personal differences or opinion, tastes and backgrounds.

The colours in heraldry (the science dealing with coats of arms) have associated meanings as follows:

Yellow (Gold) Gold means eternity, perfection.
Blue (Azure) Sky blue means high ideals, high aims.
Red (Gules) Blood red means sacrifice, love, fortitude.

Vice Chancellor's Message for 2014 Class

I congratulate you most warmly on your momentous achievement, and join you in saying thanks to your parents, sponsors and lecturers.

The degree or diploma you receive today is significant not only because of the expected financial return on investment, but more importantly, because of the personal and the intellectual growth, and the awareness of your civic responsibility, that you have experienced in the years of your attendance at this University. The educational experience Strathmore offered you during the years you have been in the University was intended to impart a spirit of service, love for the truth, hard work, honesty, entrepreneurial attitude and high moral standards and to prepare you to be exemplary 'citizens of the world'.

As you commence your various professional careers, immerse yourselves in the 'world' and be exemplary citizens among your peers. Take up you professional work with a clear awareness of the needs of our society and a desire to serve. You must refuse to look upon professional work as a mere factor in production or an instrument for acquiring wealth or attaining prestige or power. You must defend your own dignity and that of everyone else. You must fight corruption and injustice and try always to see those around you as neighbours and not objects or servants. Strive always to exert positive influence in society through your work and behaviour, through all your actions.

As graduates of Strathmore University, you have received sound preparation to deal with the challenges our society is facing today with the daring, creativity and initiative necessary to create those new opportunities for your own future, for your own success. You are the bearers of the enduring legacy of service and excellence Strathmore has set and demonstrated through its numerous influential alumni who are serving our country with distinction and exemplary integrity in education, research, business, technology and public life.

I encourage you all to cherish the results of your hard work, but to also remember the experiences you've had, the relationships and friendships you cultivated and the life skills you take away from your time at SU. You will always remain part of the Strathmore family, and as the years pass, this University will always give you reason to be proud. I invite you to continue contributing to all Strathmore's successes nationally and internationally by becoming active and vibrant alumni.

And now on behalf of the Strathmore University family of which you will always be a part, and with all the applause that is your due, I release you into the world to serve and create wealth for our country and jobs for our people.
Thank you!

Prof. John Odhiambo
