

^K ^{DH} ^{24/2/98} Money shock as KU students return

Varsity springs up fees surprise

By STEPHEN MUIRURI
Kenyatta University, closed three weeks over campus disturbances, re-opened yesterday but shut the door on hundreds of students in a surprise move on fees arrears.

Students were required to clear their arrears for the 1997/98 academic year before registration, but very few managed.

Those turned away were asked to take the semester off to look for fees. Permission to be away was to be sought from the academic registrar, Prof John Shiundu.

Also not registered was the student expelled last Friday and 17 others suspended for periods ranging between one and four years for allegedly organising